COMMENCEMENT COOPERATION

Now that the decision has been reached to hold the 1929, (33rd) Annual Commencement exercises in the new stadium, it is important that Alumni and students realize the importance of this opportunity to cooperate with the administration of the university in making a commendable showing on this occasion. The fact that fifteen alumni classes hold special reunions at this time, and that alumni generally are invited to return, makes of this a fine opportunity to show loyalty to Alma Mater through attendance at her annual festive occasion—when her sons and daughters are bidding bon-voyage, and are sent forth to take up their work among the thousands of other alumni who have gone before.

The first year of student existence in an inviting one for alumni cooperation through personal attendance, and this personal attendance is the thing planned and hoped for by the 1929 Commencement Committees.

HOW ABOUT A BANYAN?

It's about that time of the year when we don't know whether we are going to have a blizzard or a bed of tulips, and speaking of beds it looks like we have made ours and now will have to lie in it. To get saying something, though what is this talk about not being able to purchase a Banyan? It sounds like it is going to be hard on some of us who failed on the first, second and third call to believe in the signs of the times and at that time spend the funds necessary to procure a banyan.

Does anyone know anything definite about this matter so dear to the hearts of all good young men of Brigham Young? Can we or can't we get a Banyan? If not why doesn't someone do something about it, and have the printer print some? It doesn't sound right to me to be left out entirely of one of the most interesting events of the school year.

What about letting us buy a Banyan?

"Stuffing" Charge Is Made at Utah 'U' Student Elections

was also charged by students that the Beta Theta Pi fraternity candidate for president had been receiving fraudulent credit for votes cast in his favor.

The president of the Sigma Chi fraternity, George D. Cushing, denies any knowledge of "stuffing" on the part of fraternity members, declaring that an investigation would be conducted within the fraternity. He pointed out the fact that the illegal ballots were all marked with green ink, in such a clumsy manner that would indicate that the stuffing was probably a frame-up to charge the Beta Theta Pi with cheating at the polls and thus put them in disfavor. The general feeling was that the alleged stuffing was done by individuals and not by any fraternity.

As the student constitution of the University of Utah requires that the final voting be held not later than Friday night, this is the twenty-sixth of this month, president Wood has called the student body, declaring that another primary election would be held to day.

Helping Him Out

Fat man in show to little boy behind him—Can you see anything more? Boy—Not a thing. Fat Man—Then guess when I do.

Doctors—'I'll examine you for fifteen dollars.

Patien—All right Doc. And if it don't it we'll split the bill.

ing and Dramatic Art departments. The appointment of Dr. Christine Jensen as the new dean of the creative work is the result of the growing importance of that department of work in which V. Y. U. has been acting dean of the College of Applied Science since Dr. M. C. Proctor's death. In his position with the division of publications of the United States department of Agriculture. As a rapidly increasing number of students seek higher degrees at Yveng, it was felt that the importance of this department demanded the appointment of a dean in place of the committee which has had charge of the graduate work.

To succeed against Dean Jensen as dean of the College of Applied Science, Prof. Lowry Nelson, director of the Extension Division, and as present studying at the University of Wisconsin, from which he expects to receive his Ph. D. degree before returning to take up his new duties as dean at the opening of the 1929-30 year. All home work will be grouped under one department at the head of which will be Miss Effie Warwick, according to the new arrangement. Miss Warwick is at present on leave of absence at the University of Chicago. She will return in time for the opening of the fall quarter.

Dr. Lloyd G. Collamore will succeed Dr. L. W. Oaks as medical director at the university. The change was made at the recommendation of Dr. Oaks who has been medical director of the institution for several years. He will act as associate medical director.

The college of Commerce and Business Administration has been changed to the College of Commerce. Dean H. V. Hoyt will return next fall from Stanford University, where he has been studying to resume his duties as head of the college. Professor Lester Miller has been acting dean of the College of Commerce in the absence of Dean Hoyt.

The department of Speech is the new name that is going to be given to the name of public speaking and dramatic art will be known.

Leaves of absence were granted to Dr. Carl F. Eyring, Professor B. F. Larson, Elmer Miller, W. H. Boyle, S. S. Morris, Miss Wilma Frydend and Nathan Whitten. Teachers who are returning to summer holidays begin in September are: H. V. Hoyt, from Stanford University; Lowry Nelson from the University of Wisconsin; Miss Effie Warwick from the University of Chicago; Dr. Hugh M. Woodward from the Plating University; Franklin Madison from the University of Chicago; and Florence Jerspersen Madison from California. The latter has been directing the Mission Play.

Professor Thomas C. Romney who has been studying at the University of California was granted leave of absence to take up a position with the church as head of the new seminary at the Utah Agricultural College at Logan.

Prof. Clarence Cottam was given a one year leave to accept a position with the United States biological survey.

Simpler

Bliss—I suppose you won't share after knowledge led me to travel in Europe this winter?

Duke—No, merely his thirst.

The ordinary stray language has a complaint of long hands.

Save Plams! Man

I have a date for lunch, but then when I is with and where and when? Oh, well, I'll phone tonight, and it's her's I'll say I waited for an hour!

Time To Leave

Lecturer—Allow me to repeat the words of William of Wyndham, Farmer (to wife)—Good gracious, dear, let's go out. He's starting on the dictionary.

DO WE GET A BANYAN?

There is a rumor that the number of Banyans ordered by the staff is insufficient for the number of students who have voiced the opinion of wanting one.

We are all entitled to a year book because buying a Banyan is a tradition at the V. Y. U. This book will be the most successful of our college days. We understand the book will be ready for distribution May 17. We must act now!
